Usain Bolt completed the men's sprint double while Veronica Campbell-Brown women's 200m crown at the Jamaica National Championships at the National night.

Bolt, who earlier settled for second place to Yohan Blake in semi-final one, secured a out of lane seven in 20.25.

The sprinter, who admitted to being a bit tired was satisfied with the result.

"It was a good time ... I felt good, it was ok, I ran the corner very well, I think," Bolt sa

Shut down

"I ran the corner very hard, because there were a lot of fast guys in the race, but whe the corner I looked back and just shut it down."

Steve Mullings made up for his 100m disappointment by ending up an easy second- behind Bolt in 20.40. Marvin Anderson, a finalist at the Osaka World Championships finished third in 20.63.

In the women's event, Campbell-Brown, Jamaica's sprint queen, took victory in a sea of red in 22.40.

Campbell-Brown said she was happy to be out competing again.

"I am confident that I will get in shape before Berlin," said Campbell-Brown, who had layoff due to a toe injury.

Impressive time

Shelly-Ann Fraser, who won the 100m on Saturday night, returned to take second, run in an impressive time of 22.58 out of lane two. Simone Facey, a former Jamaica junior star, finished in 22.96, while Anneisha McLaughlin recorded her first sub-23-second run since 2002 when she won the 100m in 22.96.

In the one-lap events, Novlene Williams-Mills and Ricardo Chambers regained their 100m titles. Williams-Mills crossed the finish line in 50.21 ahead of MVP's pair of Shericka Williams (50.39) and Novlene Williams-Mills Day (41.54).

On the men's side, Chambers won the final straight battle with Allodin Fothergill, 45.57, while Lansford Spence was third in 45.78.

In the women's 100m hurdles, Delloreen Ennis-London, winner of the bronze medal in Athens, took victory in 12.79, equalling her season best.

Brigitte Foster-Hylton was second in 12.87 while Lacena Golding-Clarke was third in 12.96.

In the men's 110m hurdles, Maurice Wignall returned to the winner's podium with a 13.50 while Dwight Thomas, who was neck and neck with Wignall, finished second in 13.50 while finalist Richard Phillips was third in 13.61.

Kenia Sinclair ran 2:01.63 to take the women's 800m while Aldwyn Sappleton (1:48.21) and Ricardo Cunningham (1:48.21).
